

Kingdom Transformation becomes Transfiguration

Joe T. Green

God's eternal plan for transforming humanity, revealing His will for your life, and winning the battle for your soul.

Colossians 1:27 KJV

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

Prologue

After writing the first book, 'Powerfully Purposed Transformation', God continued to reveal much more about His kingdom structure and how it works. The Spirit of God must confirm some of these teachings within you. I believe God has released a word into the world, designed to be released in the end times and then confirmed spiritually.

Revelation 10:5-7 KJV

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

I desire that every one of His children has the knowledge to put into practice and integrate into their lives the wisdom of the full maturity and stature of Christ. God has promised that His Kingdom within us would continue to grow forever. Join me as I continue to walk into the plans that God has for my life, following Jesus into the plans God has for His life in me.

Revelation 14:3-4 KJV

(3) And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

(4) These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

T/C

Father, I pray that God will destroy all religious barriers hindering your growth in His plan for you, and that He will set each of you free to follow the Lamb wherever He goes, ensuring that no hindrances within our souls hamper the release of God's light and the manifestation of heaven on earth. Honoring the presence of the Word of God as our Spirit, may we be recognized and called Emmanuel, God with us. May our goal be as Jesus' goal, to always give honor to Father God. In Jesus' name, amen.

Ch 3 Remembering Who We Are

In the beginning, God placed man in the Garden of Eden and gave him dominion over the earth. God retained ownership but gave man full authority to tend and care for the land God had given him. The world had tremendous wealth to provide for man's every need. Man had to find and develop most of it to make it suitable for his use.

Genesis 1:26-28 KJV

(26) And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

(27) So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

(28) And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

Genesis 5:1-2 KJV

(1) This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him;

(2) Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

This was Satan's opportunity to bring humans under his power and authority and assume control of the world. He deceived them and led them into disobedience to God.

Genesis 3:1-6 KJV

(1) Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?

(2) And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

(3) But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

(4) And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:

T/C

(5) For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

(6) And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.

Many believe Satan had stolen Adam's dominion from Him, but I do not think that was what happened

2 Corinthians 4:4 KJV

(4) In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Satan had blinded the minds of the man and the woman, so they did not remember who they were. They were already created in the image of God and needed to do nothing to be like God. Satan had successfully deluded them. God banned them from the Garden so they would not enter the way of Christ. His walk of holiness permits entry onto the Highway of Holiness leading to New Jerusalem. Had God not guarded the Garden, eventually man would have reentered, and sin would have found its way back into heaven.

The work consummated on the cross allowed God to form a brand-new creation with all people. Through Jesus the Christ His prodigal sons could now remember who they were when God created them, and return to exercising the dominion authority God had given them. God never took authority away from man; Satan blinded him from remembering they had it by inheritance.

Luke 3:38 KJV

(38) Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.

Adam was the son of God, and this heritage and relationship were carried through all generations, including grandsons and great-grandsons, etc., until today. Anyone who descended from Adam is a child of God. Jesus came to display the Kingdom authority and power given to a child of God after maturing and being confirmed as a son of God. It is time to remember who we are and start manifesting it for the redemption of the world. Jesus said we would do greater works than He did; it is time to begin remembering and manifesting.

Jesus told a story about a prodigal son, which I think confirms this concept Luke 15:11-32).

Luke 15:17-24 KJV

(17) And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

(18) I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

(19) And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

(20) And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

(21) And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

(22) But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

(23) And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

(24) For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

Verse 17 states: "When he came to himself." He remembered who he was and decided to return to his father. However, feeling unworthy, he asked his father for a job as a servant. But the father was not looking for hired help; he was waiting for his son's return (verse 20).

This happens many times today. Feeling unworthy, we ask God the Father for a job as a servant, the five-fold ministry. However, God is building a Kingdom of family members, not servants. We can not have both identities. We can serve as a son, but we can't identify as a servant and participate as a member of God's family in the Kingdom. The servant has servant quarters, and the son lives in the household with God the Father.

Ephesians 2:19 KJV

(19) Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

We must remember who we are and align ourselves with God in every way. We do this remembering through partnership with the Holy Spirit.

John 14:26 KJV

(26) But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

This alignment is what God calls working out your salvation with fear and trembling, and it can be completed only through fellowship with the Godhead.
